Remarks: I am not sure the attached letter requires the signature of the DCI. I would suggest, however, that the last paragraph be changed to read: "It is gratifying to me that the Agency is able through the work of a former employee, to assist your office in its efforts to develop and improve the capability to investigate criminal activity; however, since it may be misconstrued as Agency involvement in the law enforcement field, it is requested that the unclassified version of "Where's What" contain no reference to the Agency, including the fact that [REDACTED] is a former employee.
